The Pistol of the Would-Be Assassin Knocked From His Hand by the Shah's Grand Vizier-Prisoner Regrets that He Had Been Unable to Carry Out His Plan.

Paris, Aug. 3 .- An attempt on the life of the shah of Persia, Muzaffer-Ed-Din, was made here, but luckily it resulted in no harm to his majesty. A man broke through a line of policemen as the shah was leaving his apartments and tried to mount the royal carriage step. He was seized and placed under arrest.

Regretted His Failure. At the police station, the man expressed regret that he had been unable to carry out his intentions. He said: "This is an affair between me and my conscience." It was just a quarter past nine o'clock when the carriage of the shah emerged from the court of the sovereign's palace. Seated in the carriage with the shah was his grand vizier,

THE SHAH OF PERSIA. while opposite him sat Gen. Paret. The carriage turned to the left, towards the Avenue Bois de Boulogne. The Assassin Appears.

It had proceeded but a few yards when a man dressed as a laborer, sprang from between two automobiles, where he had been hidden. He broke through the line of policemen, overturning a bicycle officer, and jumped upon the royal carriage step. In one hand the man had a cane which he raised, as though to strike, but this movement was only intended to hide his real purpose, for, in the other hand he held a revolver.

The Vizier Acted Promptly. The attempted assassination there came to an end, for the grand vizier struck the weapon from the man's hand, and at the same time officers caught his arm from behind and overpowered him. A crowd of 500 people, who witnessed the attempted assassination, made a rush towards the would-be murderer and tried to attack him, but there were many police in the neighborhood acting as guards of the shah and these prevented the mob from doing violence to the miscreant. The prisoner was taken to the police station.

Carried Out His Programme. In the afternoon the shah carried out his programme for a trip down the Seine to Versailles. The would-be assassin declines absolutely to give his name or nationality. He speaks but little, and that with a southern accent. The police believe him to be an Italian. He is about 26 years of age. Received a Warning Letter.

NEW JERSEY ANARCHISTS.

veral Hundred of Them Meet at Paterson and Discuss King Killing, Etc.

New York, Aug. 3.—Several hundred anarchists held a meeting in Bartholdi hall, at Paterson, N. J., last night for the purpose of discussing the situation in Italy. There were many Frenchmen, a number of Spaniards and a few Australians in the assemblage, which consisted for the most port of Italians.

Pasqualle Frank presided. At the opening he denounced the newspapers in general and claimed that they were misrepresenting the anarchists. He said the papers made anarchists out as bad men, and pictured them in revolting actions. He said this was untrue, and that anarchists were the same as other people. Pedece Esteve, the Spaniard leader and editor of a Paterson anarchist publication, was the principal speaker of the evening. He discussed the situation in Italy from his own standpoint, claiming that the government was bad to the core. He said the poor people of the nation were oppressed and overburdened by taxes, and because of the latter the poor people could not stay in the country.

He said they did not select by lot or otherwise, any person to kill. Bresci, he said, had not been sent to kill the king; he did the act of his own free will. An anarchist was free to do as he pleased. An anarchist, he said might decide in his own mind to kill a king, and know when he had done it that he would have to give his life for it, but he would give his life gladly Bresei, he said, had killed the kins and he was glad, although he knew he would have to suffer for his act. Es teve said that he was not sorry. He asked if anyone present was sorry. This was greeted with laughter and ap Speeches were also made by Pedro Moresci, Francis Widmer and A. Aim ore, each saying that there had beer no plot for the killing of the king.

No Official Assurance that a General Advance on Pekin Has Been Begun.

THE FOWLER DISPATCH DISCUSSED.

Some Interesting Facts in Relation to the Conger Message Brought Out that Set at Rest All Thoughts of Duplicity on the Part of Chinese Officials.

Washington, Aug. 4 .- A cabinet meeting was held which lasted about an hour. The Remey dispatch telling of the check to the Japanese scouting column was read, but was not considered as of serious importance as affecting the general advance. It was stated that the government has no official assurance that a general advance against Pekin has been begun by the American or any other contingent of the international force.

The Fowler dispatch also was discussed and one of the members said it was accepted as putting an end to any possible controversy as to the authenticity of the original Conger cipher dispatch.

Some Interesting Facts. Some interesting facts connected with the original cipher message were brought to light by Mr. Fowler's report. It appears that when Minister Wu received the cipher-message, on that "poison taken in with mushrooms the 21st ult., he found that it contained a cipher within a cipher. The governor of Shan Tung, Yuan, transmitted with the message, a message from the tsung li yamen, which, in turn, transmitted Mr. Conger's message. The latter was in the state department cipher; the former in the Chinese official cipher. When Mr. Wu, in deciphering the message, reached the end of the tsung li yamen's message of transmittal he was unaware of that fact, and thought that the several groups of figures following were a portion of the tsung li yamen message. As a matter of fact they were the initial words of Mr. Conger's message and they were undecipherable by Mr. Wu, because they were in the state department cipher. Instead of beginning: "In British legation," etc., Mr. Conger's message really began: "We have been for a month in the British legation," etc. Another fact developed is that the message was signed "E. H. Conger, July 17th." What Was Supposed by Many.

Many persons had supposed that while the message was genuine it was and that it had been fraudulently dat- an inquest. pears that the tsung li yamen, or Yuan, did date it the 18th. It is thought that this date was accurate and that while Mr. Conger actually wrote his dispatch on the 17th, and put it in cipher ready for transmission at the first opportunity, the message did not leave Pekin until the following day. These developments have done much to rehabilitate the Chinese officials in the estimation of been very skeptical as to their integrity in connection with the transmission of these official messages.

Demand of Chinese Ministers. It appears that some misunderstanding exists as to a St. Petersburg dispatch printed here yesterday morning. saying that the Chinese minister there, and his colleagues in Europe, had cabled the governor of Shan Tung. demanding that free communication be opened between the Pekin ministers | in 1848. and their respective governments. This communication was in fact, a joint memorial to the throne concurred in by all Chinese ministers abroad, including Minister Wu, in Washington. It was transmitted through the governor of Shan Tung, to be ferwarded to Pekin. This action is considered very important, as indicating that the Chinese ministers abread have at last reached a unanimous conclusion that the situation is no longer to be trifled with. Their action may be regarded as a final effort on their part to influence the home government, and its outcome is awaited with great interest.

our Government in Earnest. Meanwhile the government of the United States, like the governments of Europe, has not abar-loned its efforts to establish communication with its ministers at Pekin by independent means, and the state department has instructed Consul-General Goodnow, at Shanghai; Consul Fowler, at Che Foo, and Consul Ragsdale, at Tien Tsin, to spare no effort or expense to open up direct communication with Conger.

Another Message from Chaffee. In addition to his short message relative to the Japanece check, transmitted through Admiral Remey and received yesterday morning, Gen. Chaffee made another and direct cable report last evening. The message was withfainted, and the injured persons lying held from publication by Secretary Root, who declined to make its purport public. It was presumably devoted to a recital of Gen. Chaffee's needs in a military way.

In view of the London statement that advance on Tien Tsin actually began with the present week, there is also a possibility that Gen. Chaffee's message has some bearing on that subject, though it is evident from his report of this morning that the advance, it started, could not have progressed far beyond Tien Tsin, as the place only ten miles out of town.

For several years I was in such wretched health that life was almost a burden. I could hardly walk across the floor, was so feeble. Several of our best physicians attended me, but failed to help. I concluded to write to you for place would do anything locally which advice. In a few days I received such a kind, motherly letter. I followed your instructions and am my 'old self' again. Was greatly benefited before I had used one bottle. May God bless you for what you are doing for suffering women." - Mrs. CLARA GATES, Johns P. O., Miss., Oct. 6, 1899.
